DETAILED ACTION

Response to Restriction/Election Requirement

1. The response to restriction/election requirement received on 09/22/2008 has been entered in full. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 210-225 in the reply filed on 09/22/2008 is acknowledged.

Claim Objections

2. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

The sequence of claims after claim 218 is numbered as 217-223, whereas the sequence should be 219-225, therefore for examining purposes examiner has renumbered the sequence as 219-225. For examination purposes, examiner assumes claim 219 depends on claim 218, claim 220 depends on claim 218, claim 221 depends on claim 218, claim 222 depends on claim 219, claim 223 depends on claim 218, claim 224 depends on claim 218 and claim 225 depends on claim 224. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Art Unit: 2624

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 210-217 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Supreme Court precedent (Diamond v. Diebr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978); Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 70 (1972); Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780, 787-88 (1876)) and recent Federal Circuit decisions (In re Bilski, 88 USPQ2d 1385 (Fed. Cir. 2008)) indicate that a statutory “process” under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing. While the instant claim(s) recite a series of steps or acts to be performed, the claim(s) neither transform underlying subject matter nor positively tie to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed method steps, and therefore do not qualify as a statutory process. For example, claim 210 simply recites method steps, they neither transform underlying subject matter nor positively tie to another statutory category. Examiner suggests amending the claims by inserting a statutory category in the body of the claims so that the method steps are tied to a statutory category. The same rejection is applied to all other claims depending on claim 210.

5. Claims 218-225 are allowed. The following is an examiner’s statement of reasons of allowance: Regarding claim 218, the closest prior art of record (Yang, U.S. Patent No. 6,700,999 B1) teaches tracking a face in video frames (a temporally-sequential collection of images) by determining the parameters of the pixels in the face area of the images, thus determining the default parameters (Yang, col. 7, lines 26-30; col. 8, line 59 – col. 9, line 34; col. 3, lines 1-50) but does not teach “modifying values of the one or more parameters within a main acquired image based upon an analysis of said face region and the default parameter values determined based on the collection of the images” as recited in claim 218, in combination with other claim limitations. Therefore, claim 218 is allowed. All other claims depending on claims 218 would be allowable at least by dependency on claim 218. Claims 210-217 would be allowable for the same reasons as applied to claims 218-225, after all the 35 USC 101 rejection issues have been resolved on the respective claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
